

Writing Portfolio: Teacher Reflection

Teachers can use this portfolio to reflect on their writing instruction and to establish individualized goals for students.

Student's Name: _____ Grade: _____

Teacher's Name: _____ Date: _____

Title of Piece: _____

Genre of Piece:    Narrative    Expository    Persuasive    Poem    Other

My instructional goals for this assignment were...

The ways in which I tried to help this student do well on this assignment include...

This piece was selected for my student's portfolio because...

The strengths of this piece are...

Based on this sample of writing, I plan to work with this student on...

Writing Portfolio: Student Reflection

This portfolio can provide students with the opportunity to reflect on the writing process and their writing accomplishments.

My Name: _____ Date: _____

Title of Piece: _____

This piece was chosen for my portfolio because...

The things I like most about this piece of writing are...

If I worked more on this piece of writing or started over, I would change...

While working on this piece of writing, I did the following things to help me do my best work...

Overall, I would rate this piece of writing as

- Terrific; this is one of my best papers and a must read for others.
- Good; I'm happy with it and I think it would please an audience.
- Fair; it could use a little more work before being read by others.
- Poor; it would need lots of work before being published.