A national writing contest for kids
Inspired by the Exquisite Corpse Adventure

Exquisite Prompt Redux

What's an Exquisite Corpse Adventure?*

* The Exquisite Corpse Adventure is a sequential story game that was played by 20 celebrated authors and illustrators, and run in installments by the National Children's Book and Literacy Alliance on the Library of Congress website.

Here’s a chance for kids in grades K-12 to flex their own writing muscles! In this annual writing contest from Reading Rockets and AdLit.org, the writing prompts come from winning student entries from our 2010 contest. Young authors: now it’s up to you to develop your own inspired, exquisite writing.

How to enter:
2. Find your grade level (K-12).
3. Grab the writing prompt.
4. Get creative!
5. Win a collection of books and get published online!

Contest deadline: November 30, 2011
